

Nova Scotia: Thinking outside the landfill

Disposal Bans

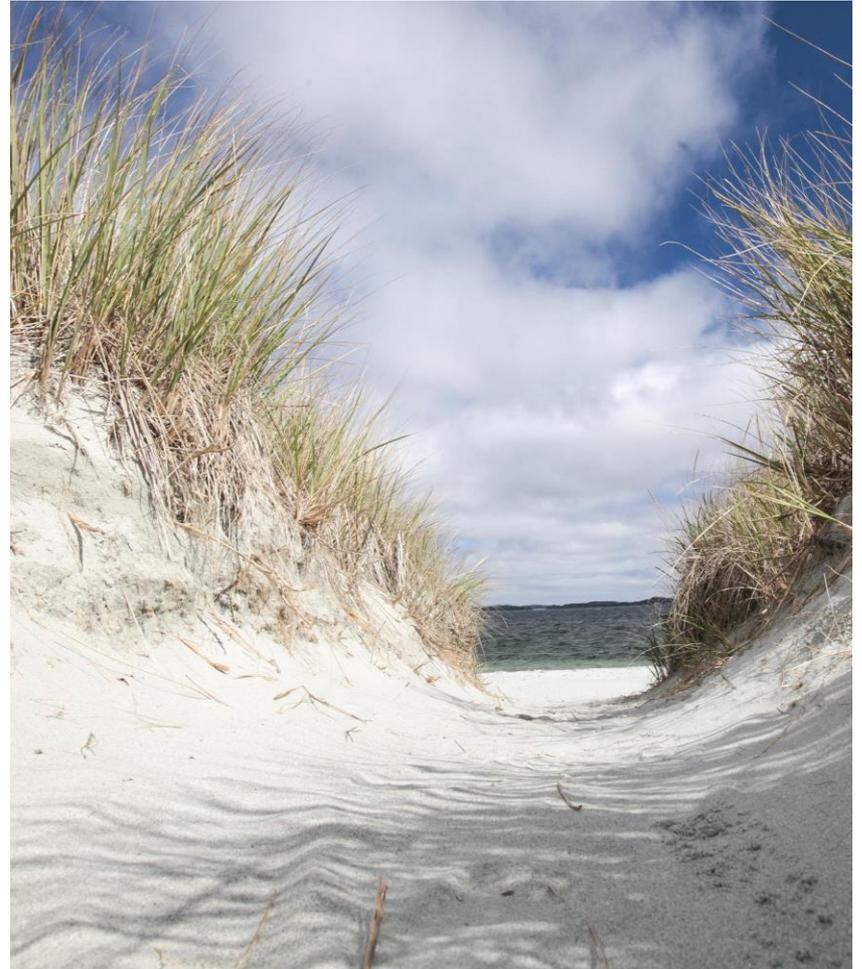

- Paper
 - Corrugated cardboard, newsprint
- Containers
 - Beverage, steel/tin food, glass food containers
 - HDPE2 and LDPE4 plastics (including bags/film)
- Used tires, waste paint
- Compostable organics
 - Leaf and yard waste
 - Food waste
- E-waste
- Open burning of solid waste not permitted

Nearly 400 thousand tonnes diverted per year

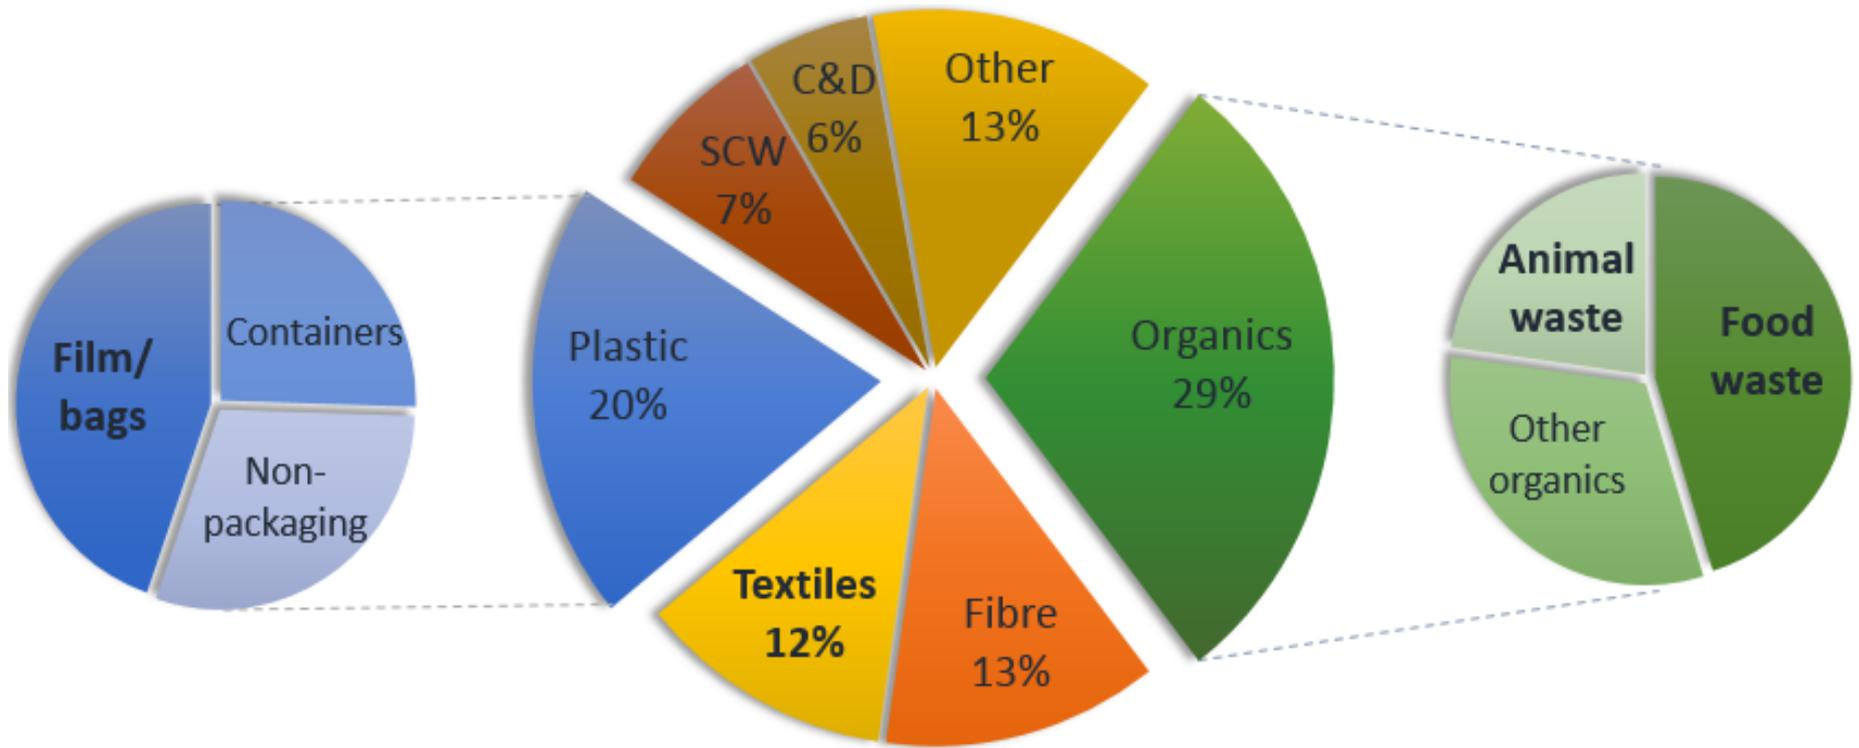

Each year, nearly 400 thousand tonnes of waste is disposed in Nova Scotia to:

- Landfills
- C&D sites

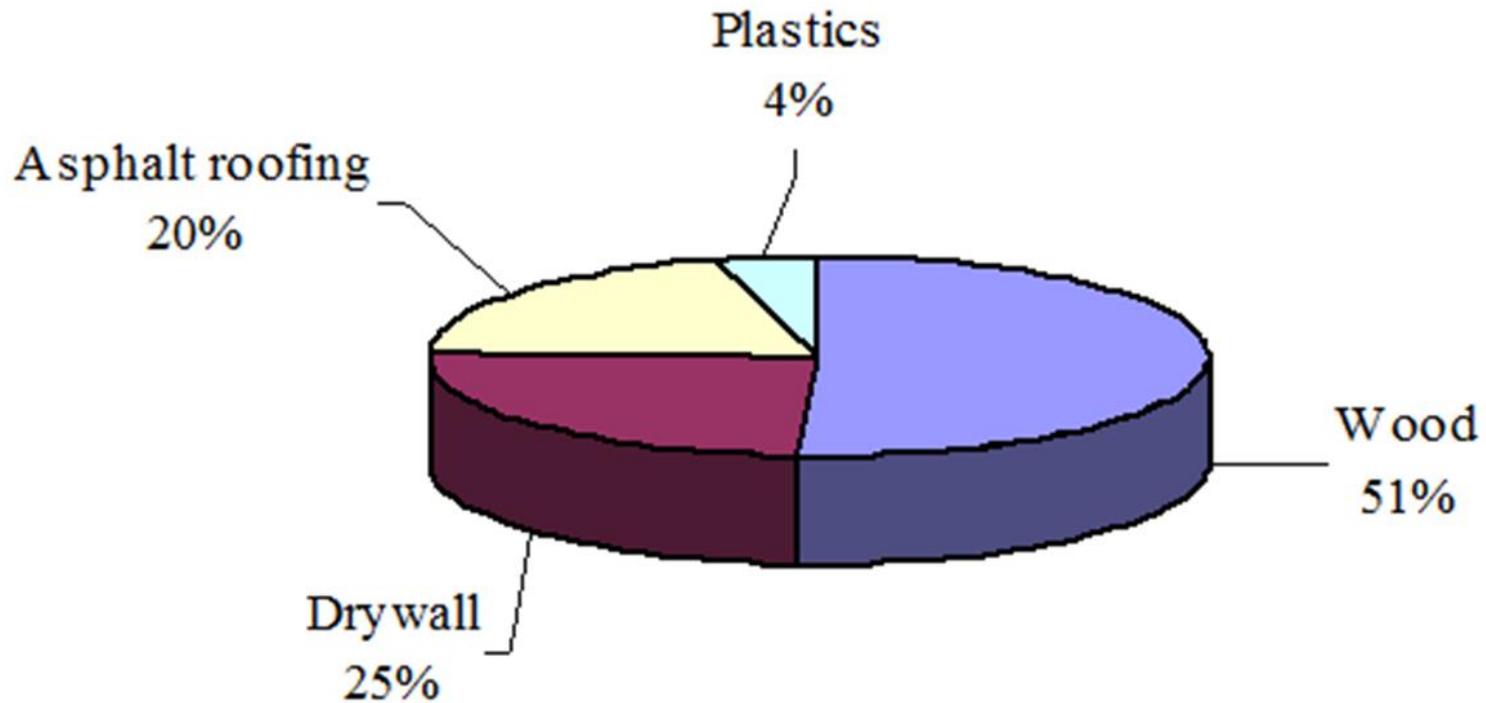

Landfills

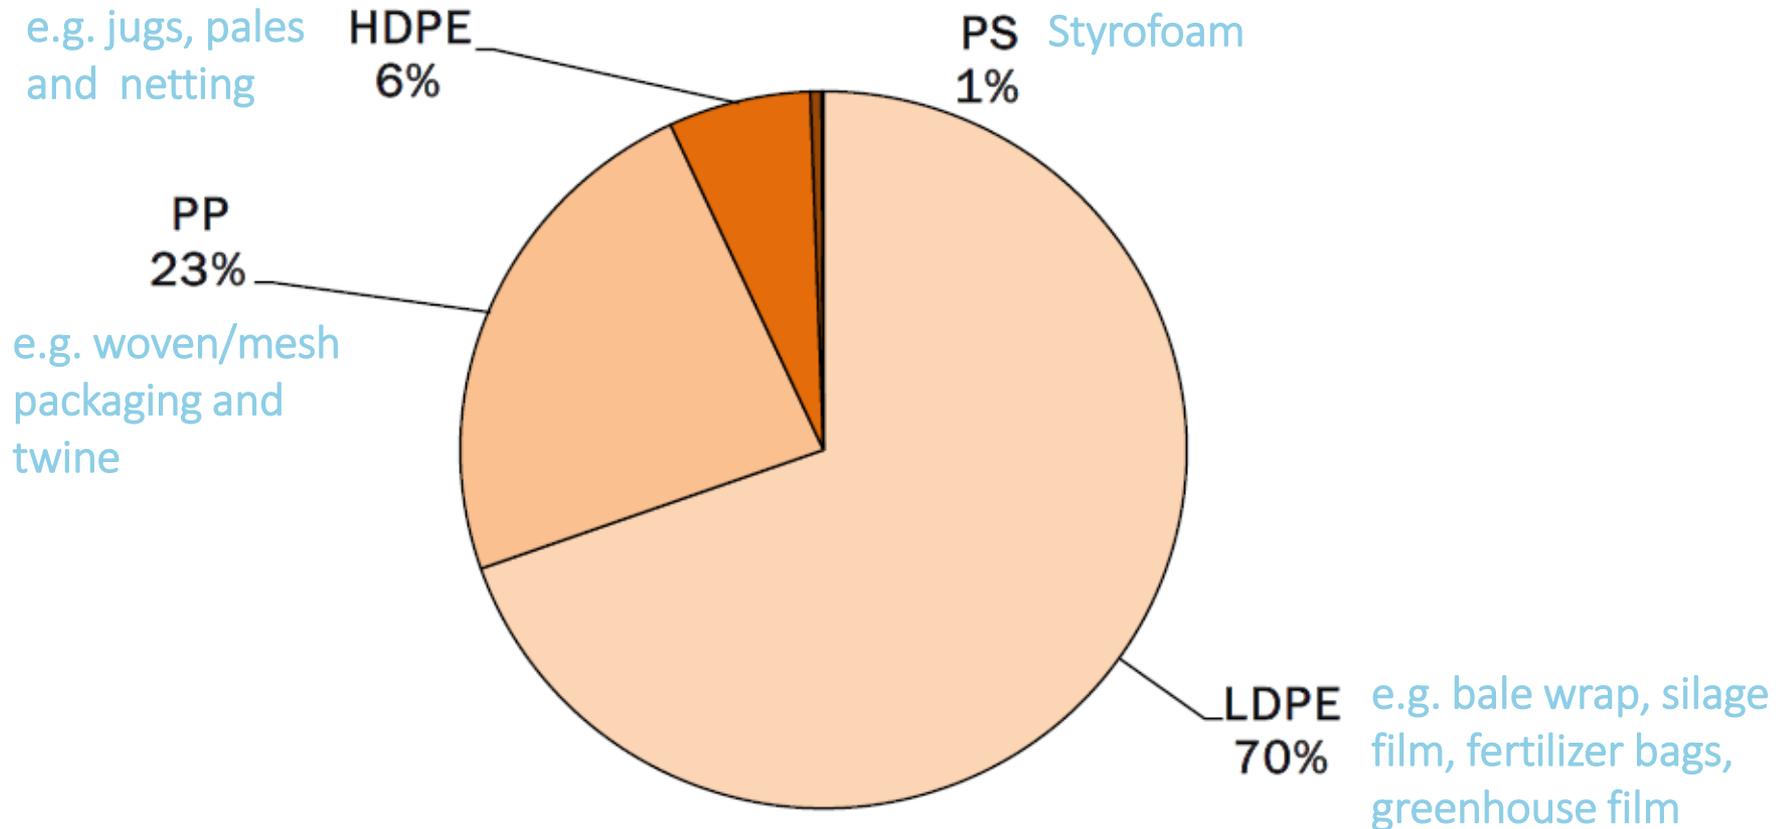

source: Divert NS, 2011 & 2012 waste audit results

C&D sites

Plastics generated on Maritime farms

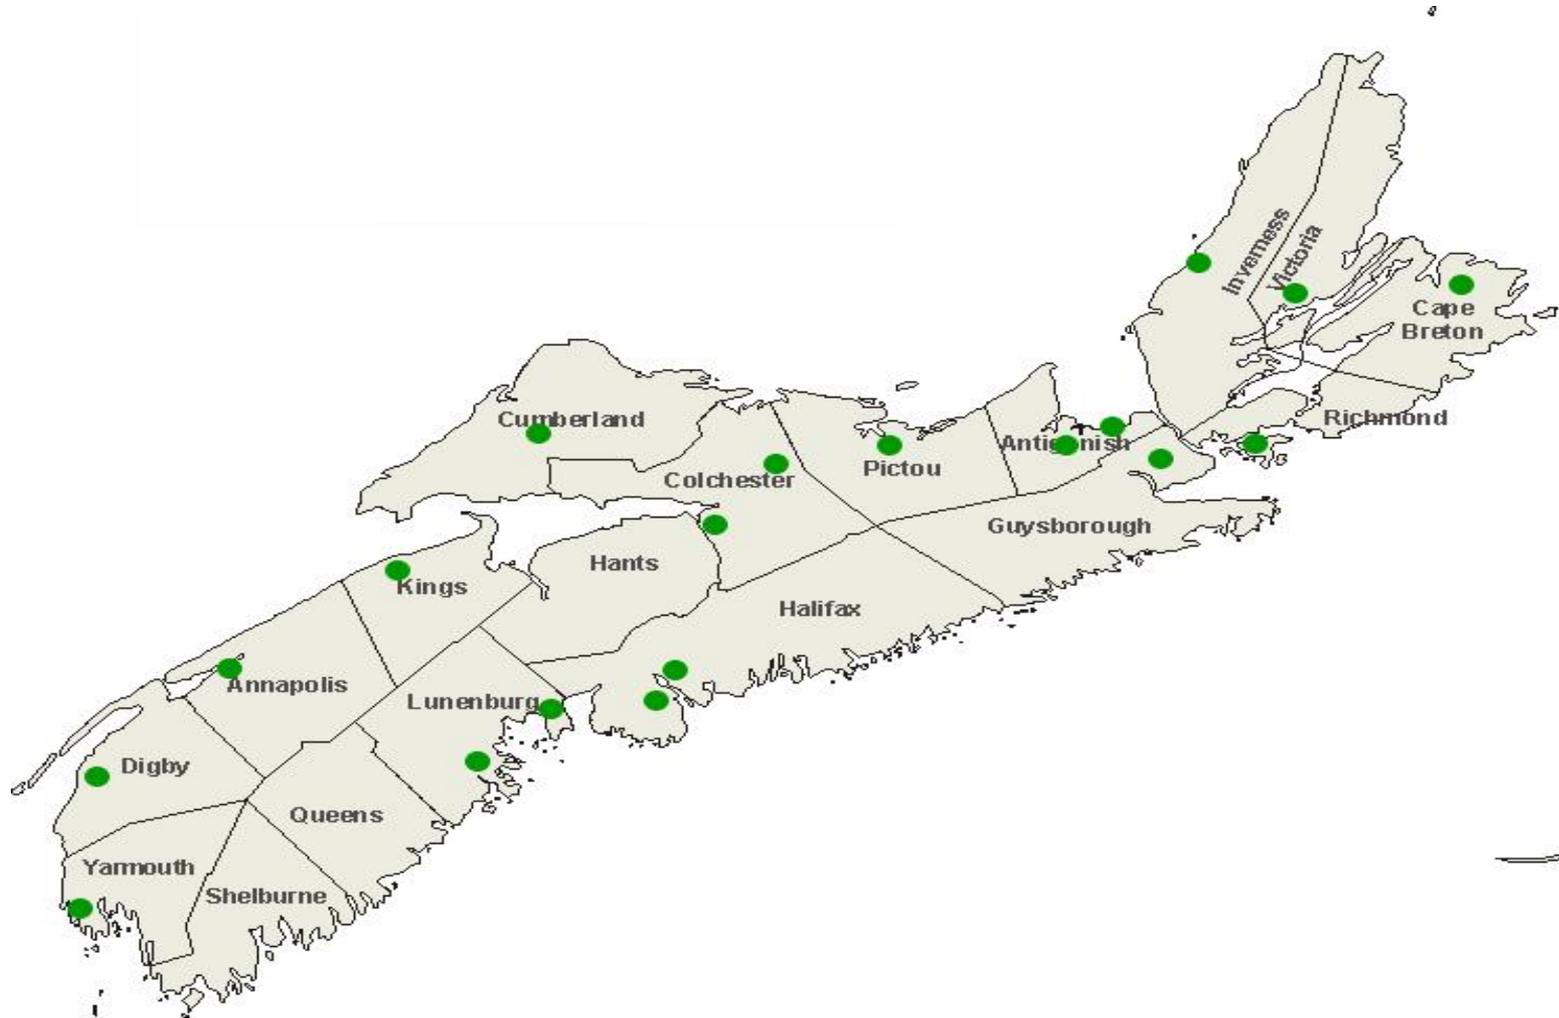

source: Clean Farms, 2012, Maritime agricultural plastics audit

Opportunities for farmers

- Organics
 - Nutrient input
- Wood, wallboard
 - Cow bedding
- Plastics
 - Recycled plastic products as substitute for wood
- Tires
- Asphalt shingle pavement
- Paper, glass, paint, textiles, etc.

19 Central Composting Facilities

Thermocell

Blown-in insulation

Hydro seeding

Glass

- For drainage, filtration
- Septic media

Contacts

Ashley David

Solid Waste-Resource Coordinator

Ashley.David@novascotia.ca

(902) 266-9420

Bob Kenney

Recycling Development Officer

Robert.Kenney@novascotia.ca

(902) 499-2178